

It's your responsibility
to keep them buckled
in the back!

Can I sit
up front with you, Mom?

Not yet.
You're not 13.

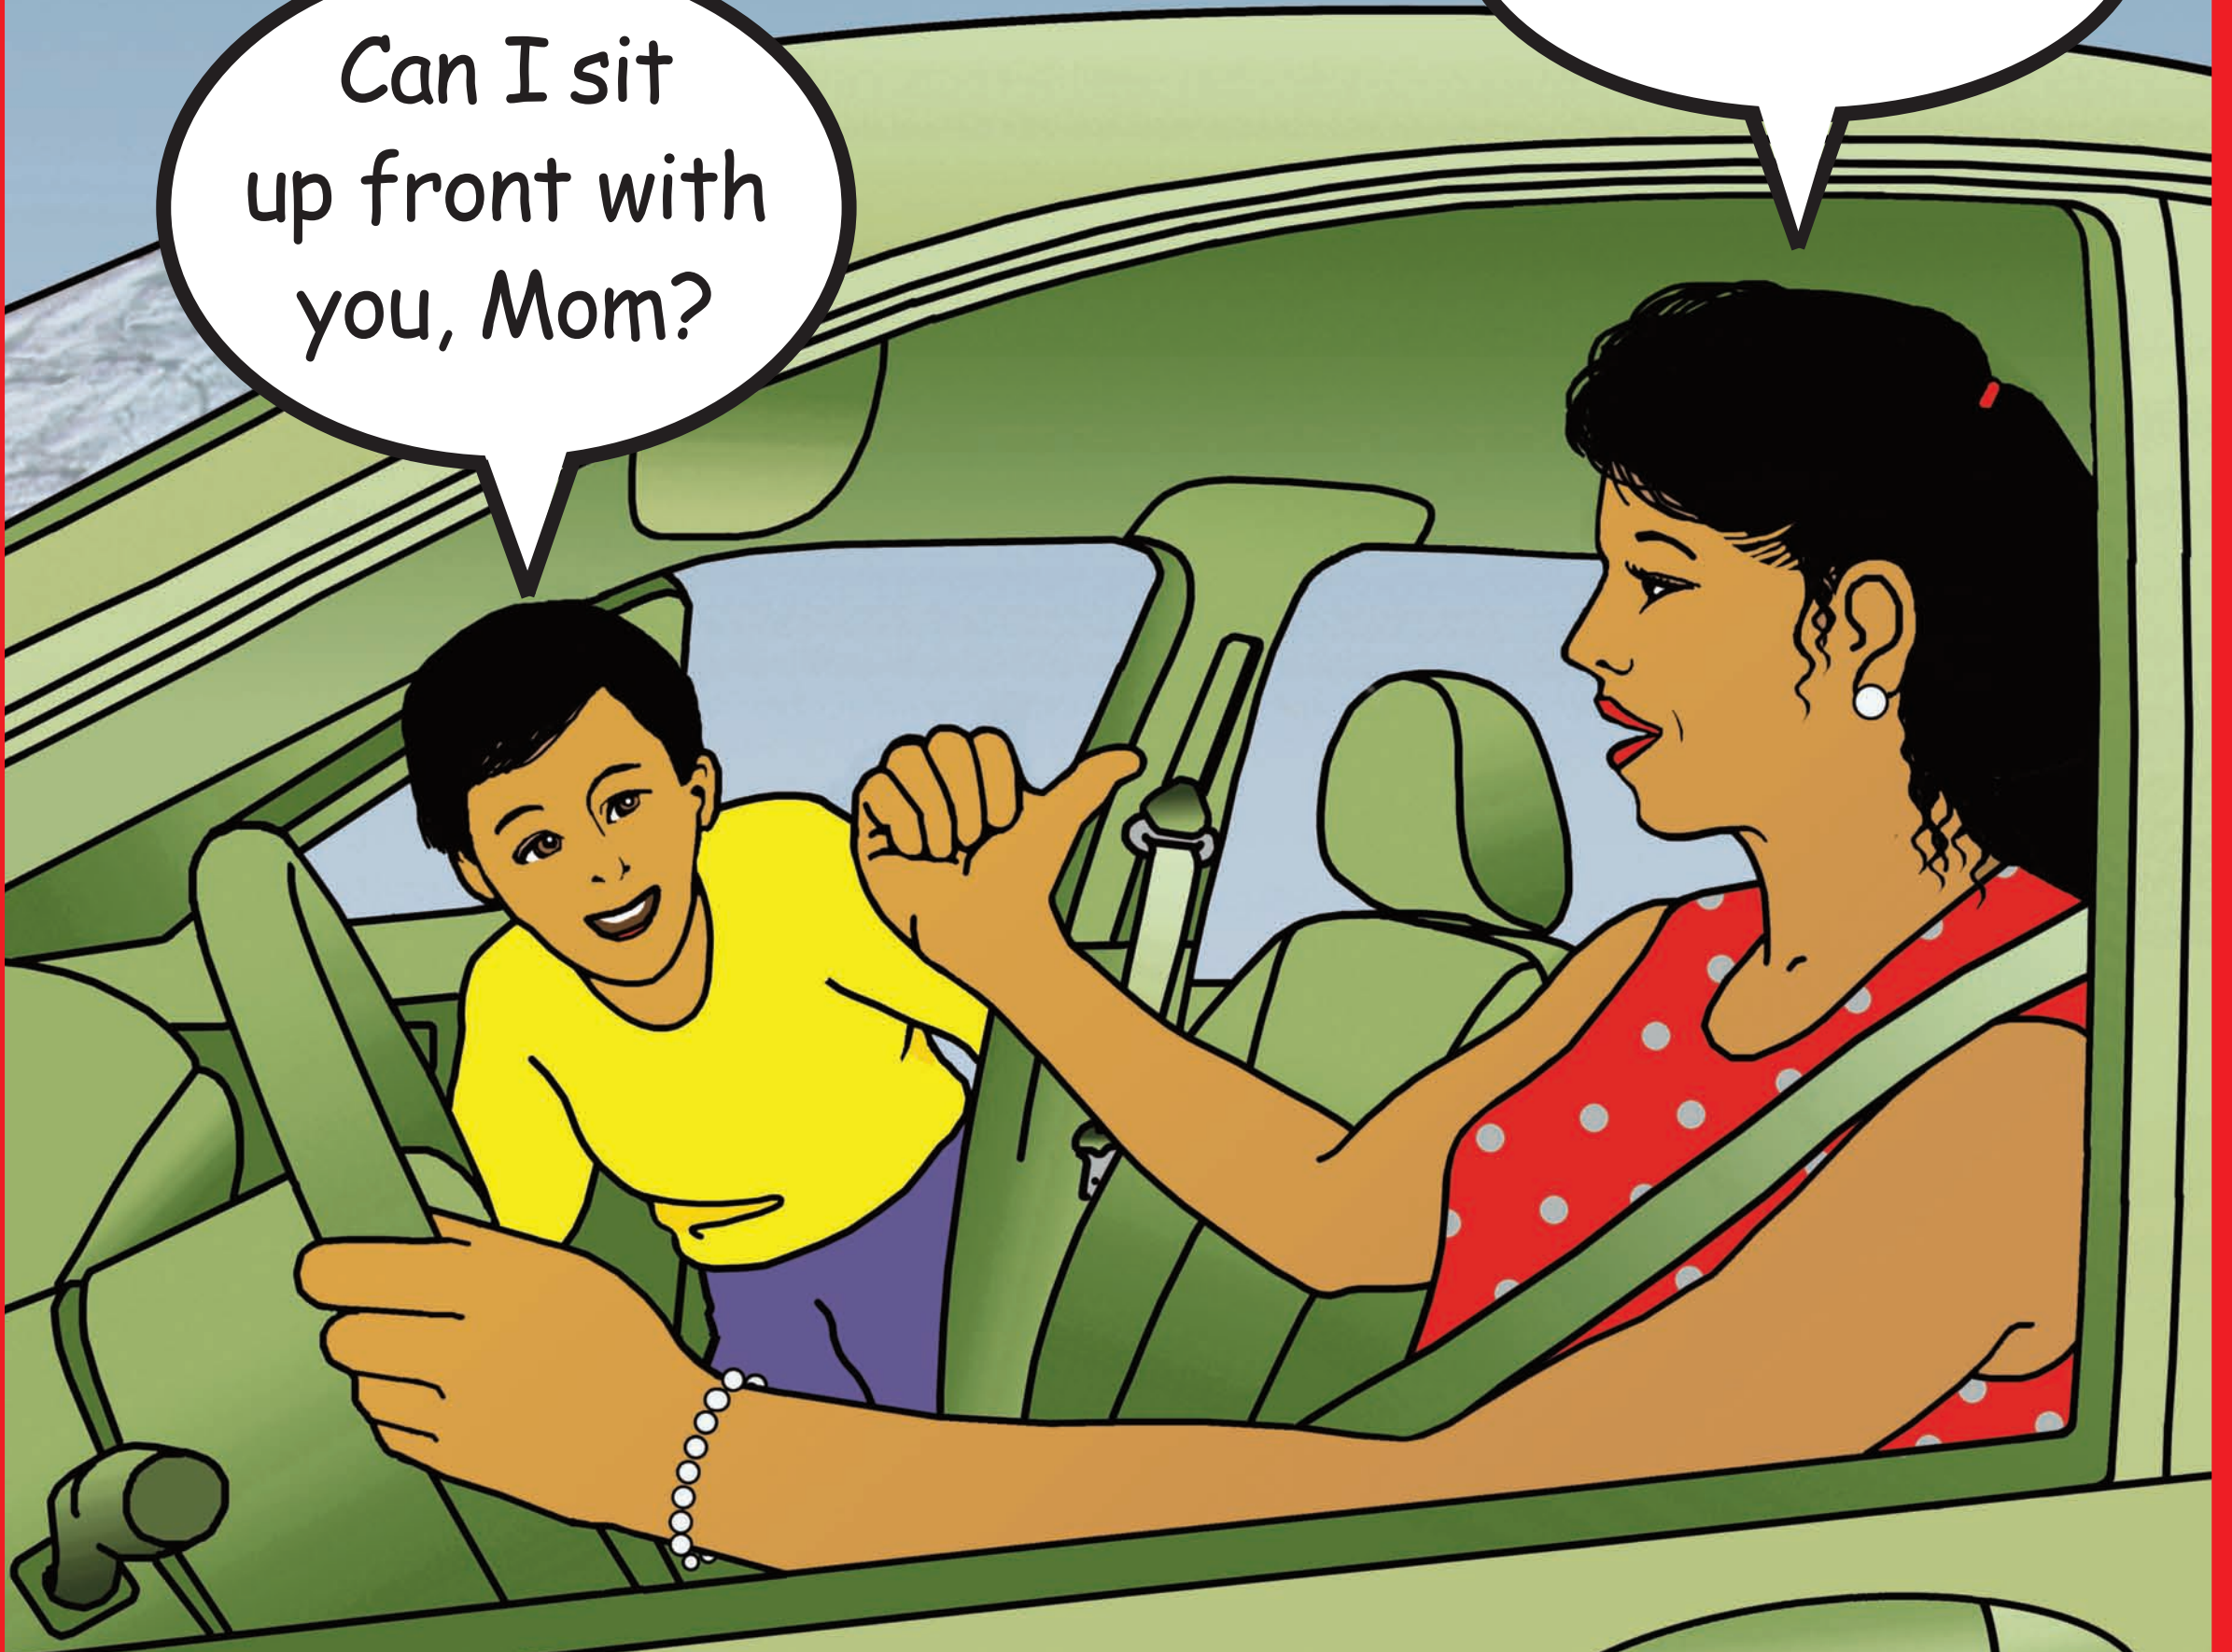

Most 8-12 year olds (tweens) think it's safe to sit in the front seat, but actually the safest place for kids under age 13 is in the back seat. Keep your tween safe and tell him/her to sit in the back.
