

TEEN DRIVER LICENSING

Getting a learner's permit in Virginia:

15^{1/2}
years

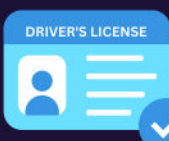

Age minimum:
15 years and 6 months

Visit the DMV website* for details and required documentation

Must pass a two-part knowledge test and a vision test

Getting a driver's license in Virginia, if under 18:

16^{3/4}
years

Age minimum:
16 years and 3 months

9
months

Hold permit for at least 9 months

Pass an approved driver's education course

Complete behind-the-wheel training

45
hours

Complete 45 hours driving with parent supervision including 15 hours at night

Some counties require a joint parent/teen traffic safety class **

Most localities require a licensing ceremony. Check with your city/county for details ***

Driver restrictions until age 18:

Curfew – may not operate motor vehicle between midnight and 4 AM

Passenger – only one passenger under the age of 21

Limit does not apply to relatives

Things to remember when behind the wheel:

Seat Belts are required by all occupants. Passengers under 18 must use a seat belt or be in an appropriate child seat.

Texting or using a cell phone is prohibited while the vehicle is in operation.

Zero-tolerance for underage substance use or open containers. This applies to anyone in the vehicle.

*Required documentation: <https://www.dmv.virginia.gov/drivers/#applying.asp>

 Joint parent/teen traffic safety class: https://www.dmv.virginia.gov/drivers/#ed_reqs.asp

 Licensing ceremony: <https://www.dmv.virginia.gov/drivers/#applying.asp>

carsafetynow.org